POEM EXAMPLES

THE DRAGON'S HOUSE

Inside the dragon's house,
Gold piles up high,
A fire burns bright,
Warming the big cave.

The dragon sleeps on soft moss,
Breathing out smoke,
Books are stacked high,
Full of old stories.

The dragon's house is quiet,
Filled with secrets and dreams.

AUTUMN

Leaves go red, orange and gold,
I crunch through fallen leaves.
The smell of bonfires in the distance,
Smoke curls up into the sky,

Conkers fall from their spiky shells,
And the leaves start to fall from the trees.
Pumpkins appear, faces carved into them,
Autumn feels like magic all around.
